By such artful schemes of keeping the company in debt, which need never be, (and I suppose but few of the free-i men of the company know they are liable to) they endeavour to sanctify their proceedings. I have no ill-will to any man on the coast, yet I think also it my duty, as a good subject and free trader, to throw in my mite of knowledge, as it may possibly draw the attention of some one man in power to lend his aid towards reforming and regulating, perhaps, the most useful and beneficial commerce this nation now enjoys, considering it in all its views.--It employs great numbers of our poor manufacturers, and our colonies cannot exist without negroes. The legislature, I observe, is...
