

WIC Food Packages: Time for a Change

By Committee to Review the WIC Food Packages, Food and Nutrition Board, Institute of Medicine, National Academy of Sciences

National Academies Press. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, WIC Food Packages: Time for a Change, Committee to Review the WIC Food Packages, Food and Nutrition Board, Institute of Medicine, National Academy of Sciences, The Special Supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants, and Children (the WIC program) has promoted the health of low-income families for more than 30 years by providing nutrition education, supplemental food, and other valuable services. The program reaches millions of families every year, is one of the largest nutrition programs in the United States, and is an important investment in the nation's health. The U.S. Department of Agriculture charged the Institute of Medicine with creating a committee to evaluate the WIC food packages (the list of specific foods WIC participants obtain each month). The goal of the study was to improve the quality of the diet of WIC participants while also promoting a healthy body weight that will reduce the risk of chronic diseases. The committee concluded that it is time for a change in the WIC food packages and the book provides details on the proposed new food packages, summarizes how the proposed packages differ from current packages, and discusses the rationale for the proposed...

Reviews

It is one of my personal favorite books. It is written in easy terms and never hard to understand. It has been designed in an exceedingly easy way and it is only after I finished reading this publication that I changed the way I think.

-- Lucinda Stiedemann

A must-buy book if you need to add benefit. This really is for all those who state that there had not been a really worth looking at. Your daily life period will likely change when you complete reading this publication.
