Reports on the subject to be made to the Inspector General. 2. Every person who commits any common nuisance to the lives, health, or safety of the public, or any individual is guilty of a misdemeanour. Impr. 2 years. Ord. 18, 1893, sec. 361. See Minor Offences.) OATHS--NATURE OF. 1. It is a Policemans duty when called on by a Magistrate, to give evidence for or against a fellow creature, whether it be to clear the innocent or convict the guilty. 2. He is to speak the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth. The oath he takes before giving evidence, should compel him to do so. By kissing the Bible he shows his willingness to do this. 3. He should state what he really saw, heard, or did in the matter, keeping nothing back that he knows concerns the question at issue. 4. Men are required to swear to the evidence they give in a court of justice because it is thought right to remind them thus solemnly that they are about to speak in the presence of God, that they may be more cautious, lest their feelings lead them to say that which is untrue or to keep back any part of the truth. 5. A man really desirous of speaking only the plain truth, will, when sworn, think well on each question before commencing to answer it. If he do not clearly understand the question put to him, he will...
