Excerpt: . . . general information regarding the americanirish historical society. The Society was organized on January 20, 1897, and now has members in twenty-seven states, the District of Columbia, two territories and two foreign countries. The first president-general was the late Rear-Admiral R. W. Meade, U. S. N. (retired). Briefly stated, the object of the organization is to make better known the Irish chapter in American history. There are two classes of members in the organization, --Life and Annual. The life membership fee is 50 (paid once). The fee for annual members is 5, paid yearly. In the case of new annual members, the initiation fee, 5, also pays the membership dues for the first year. The board of government comprises a president-general, a vicepresident-general, a secretary-general, a treasurer-general, a librarian and archivist, and an executive council. There are also state vicepresidents. The Society has already issued...
