Who is to determine what penalties would conform, and what would be obnoxious to the rule? Penal laws are not to be enforced by such arbitrary sanction. But for present purposes the objection on that ground may be disregarded. The proceeding itself was irregular. Section 2 of the same law requires that all charges against a member shall be submitted in writing together with the signed name of the person or persons making said charges and specifying the offense which has been alleged to have been committed. The association will then appoint a committee whose duty it is to probe thoroughly into all the details of said charges and report as soon as possible its findings to the association. The only thing that can be called a charge submitted in writing is a resolution adopted by the association on April 27, purporting to be offered and signed by one W. J. Long. It is as follows: There has been brought to the attention of certain members of this association certain facts which have been construed as prejudicial to the interests of the organization and liable to work harm to the best efforts of the organization in its attempt to secure relief from the mine cave menace. Therefore, be it resolved, that this organization summon its vice-president, Dr. D. W. Evans, to appear before an investigating committee and make answer to the charges that his actions are detrimental...
