Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Early Okanogan History One Hundred years ago this summer the first white men came to this section. The first to come was David Thompson and his party, making a dash down the Columbia river in July, 1811, in the interests of the Northwest Fur Company. Thompson is unquestionably entitled to the honor of being the first white man that traversed the Columbia from its headwaters to the sea. Lewis Clark had been before him from the mouth of the Snake down to the ocean, but no explorers or traders were on the Columbia above the mouth of the Snake in advance of David Thompson. He is therefore, beyond all dispute, entitled to the honor of being the first white man that reached the mouth of the Okanogan river. And our river certainly had a most worthy discoverer, for Thompson is fit to compare with the greatest of the great pathfinders of the West. In Thompson was combined many exceptional qualities. He was a skilled surveyor and was thoroughly grounded in astronomy and capable of taking...
