

Collective Bargaining, Discrimination, Social Security and European Integration: Papers and Proceedings of the Seventh European Regional Congress of the International Society for Labour Law and Social (Paperback)

By Roger Blanpain

Kluwer Law International, Netherlands, 2003. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 236 x 160 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Although nominally protected by a plethora of laws, and championed in several well-intentioned declarations and charters, today's worker often feels adrift on an uncharted sea subject to unpredictable currents that have nothing to do with the quality of his or her work. Can we get at the root of this serious problem? We can at least determine if our existing legal systems, especially in the area of collective bargaining, discrimination, social security and European integration are able and ready to tackle the world-of-work challenges that confront us. And if they are not, we can begin to formulate a basis for new and effective labour and social security laws. This was in fact the essential impetus for the European Conference of the International Society of Labour Law and Social Security held in Stockholm in September 2002, a ground-breaking conference of which this book is the written record. In general, the papers stress the European situation, as it is in the EU, both as it exists today and as it is likely to be in the foreseeable future, a community of twenty-five...
