TIBET, TIBET: A PERSONAL HISTORY OF A LOST LAND

Penguin Books Ltd. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Tibet, Tibet: A Personal History of a Lost Land, Patrick French, From the author of "India: A Portrait", Patrick French's "Tibet, Tibet: A Personal History of a Lost Land" has been acclaimed as the book that showed the real Tibet for the first time. Tibet has long fascinated the West, but what really lies beyond our romantic image of a Buddhist mountain kingdom of peace and spirituality? Travelling through the country, French meets warrior monks, nomads and a nun secretly fighting Chinese communist rule, but also young Tibetans with a more pragmatic attitude to their situation. Interweaving these encounters with little-known stories of war and turmoil from Tibet's past, he reveals a more nuanced, fascinating and surprising picture of this complex place than any other book has done. "Mixes a compelling subject, magnificent prose and deep understanding". ("The Times"). "Inspired and heartfelt .shows that Tibet was never the peace-loving paradise so many generations of well-wishers have longed for it to be". (Pico Iyer, "Los Angeles Times"). "Tibet, Tibet, so good they named it twice.French is a writer of generous talents". ("Sunday Times"). "French has produced something very different from what he calls "Tibetophile" literature, something greatly superior in its honesty and lack of false sentiment". ("Spectator"). "A gripping mix of history, travel writing and personal memoir .vividly told". ("Observer"). Patrick French is the author of "Younghusband: The Last Great Imperial Adventurer", which won the Somerset Maugham Award and the Royal Society of Literature W. H. Heinemann Prize, "Liberty or Death: India's Journey to Independence and Division", which won the "Sunday Times" Young Writer of the Year Award, "Tibet, Tibet: A Personal History of a Lost Land" and, most recently, "The World Is What It Is: The Authorized Biography of V.S. Naipaul",...
