Original publisher: Maxwell Air Force Base, Ala. : Air University Press, 2003 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)54837621 Subject: Employee retention -- United States. Excerpt: . . . Chapter 1 Why the Air Force Needs Women This chapter answers the question: Why does the Air Force need women For some individuals, the answer is intuitively obvious and they might wonder why I pose the question. For others, the response is, It doesnt. This chapter is for the readers who fall somewhere between these two extremes and who cannot articulate exactly what women bring to the table, but who are pretty much convinced that an all-male force is not in the best interests of our nations defense. Demographics and diversity are the keys to understanding the title statement. Demographics, as presented below, demonstrate conclusively that the Air Force needs to recruit talent from every source and show that women will make up a larger portion of the available talent in the upcoming decade. This chapter also presents research on the benefits of diversity for an organization, that is, the benefits of including a mix of ethnicities and gender in the...
