Most organizations do not have enough time to get their employees working on project, compelling them to rely on third party project management teams to do the job for them. This explains why the project management field is progressing these days, and why some people want to become project managers of certain teams. However, project management is not a simple task. It involves working on producing numerous outputs at any given time, managing teams that are formed solely for the project and are not really bonded together, and lastly dealing with contingencies so that the group will be able to deliver what is expected of them. This implies that if the project manager is not competent enough...
